

The Fool by The Hepcats

I have been working hard
To keep up my cool
I let down my guard lord
She made me her fool

(Why do you keep on trying?)
(Why do you keep on trying?)
(Why do you keep on trying?)
(Why...?)

Why must I be her fool?
Who would have known she would lead me
If she did it again
Maybe next time I will be smarter
Why I must I be her fool?

(Who would have known?)
(Who would care?)

(I doubt it. It will happen again)

Why must I be her fool?
In my life,
I have never played the fool
Keep it cool
Remember, she is only one girl waiting for you)

(We would say)

(Take your time, the world is

Why must I be her fool?
Etc.
